9. At all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendant, POLICE OFFICER CHRYSTOPHER SCHLITT (Shield No. 11229), was a duly sworn member of said department and was acting under the supervision of said department and according to his official duties. Defendant Schlitt is sued herein in his official and individual capacities. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant Schlitt is believed to be assigned to the 70th Precinct of the NYPD.

10. At all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or CITY OF NEW YORK.
11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
12. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

13. On November 03, 2016, at approximately 3:00 p.m., Plaintiff DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER was lawfully present at or near the corner of East 48th Street and Kings Highway in the County of Kings, City and State of New York.
14. At this time, Defendant Schlitt arrived at the location on duty and in plain clothes.
15. Moments before Defendant Schlitt's arrival, Plaintiff had been shot in the leg by an unknown individual.
16. Without any legal justification or excuse, Defendant Schlitt approached Plaintiff arrested him.
17. Plaintiff was not in possession of any guns, drugs, or contraband.
18. Plaintiff was not engaged in any unlawful or suspicious activity.
19. Nonetheless, the Plaintiff was formally arrested, was placed in handcuffs, and was

- transported to Kings County Hospital where he received the treatment for his injury.
20. Plaintiff remained at the hospital for 14 days, in the custody of the Defendants.
  21. At no time on November 03, 2016, did Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of law.
  22. At no time on November 03, 2016, did Defendant Schlitt possess probable cause to arrest Plaintiff or to order Plaintiff's arrest.
  23. At no time on November 03, 2016, did Defendant Schlitt possess information that would lead a reasonable officer to believe probable cause existed to arrest Plaintiff.
  24. Plaintiff was kept handcuffed to the hospital bed in Kings County Hospital where he was held for several days before he was arraigned on a criminal complaint containing false allegations provided by Defendant Schlitt.
  25. Specifically, Defendant Schlitt swore out a criminal complaint against Plaintiff stating that Plaintiff shot himself in the leg and tried to flee scene of incident after attempt of concealing firearm.
  26. These and other allegations were false and Defendant Schlitt knew they were false when he made them.
  27. Pursuant to these false allegations, the Plaintiff was charged with criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree, falsely reporting an incident in the third degree, criminal possession of a weapon, and criminal possession of a weapon in the fourth degree.
  28. Following his arraignment, Plaintiff was thereafter still receiving treatment at Kings County Hospital.
  29. Despite Defendants' unconstitutional actions, all charges against Plaintiff were dismissed.

30. Defendant Schlitt provided knowingly false and misleading information to prosecutors at the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
31. Each of the allegations were false and the Defendant Schlitt knew them to be false when they were made.
32. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER sustained, inter alia, embarrassment, humiliation, physical injuries, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
33. All of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, were carried out under the color of state law.
34. All of the aforementioned acts deprived Plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America, and were therefore in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.
35. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers with all of the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.
36. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.
37. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct which constituted custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.

FALSE ARREST
UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

38. Plaintiff DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
39. As a result of the Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff was subjected to illegal, improper and false arrest, taken into custody, and caused to be falsely imprisoned, detained, and confined without any probable cause, privilege, or consent.
40. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was falsely arrested without probable cause

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR DENIAL OF RIGHT TO FAIR TRIAL UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

41. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
42. At no time did Defendant Schlitt have any legal basis for commencing criminal process, nor was there any reasonable basis to believe said conduct set forth herein was lawful, reasonable, or otherwise appropriate.
43. Defendant Schlitt misrepresented and falsified evidence to the Kings County District Attorney.
44. Defendant Schlitt did not make a complete and full statement of facts to the District Attorney.

45. Defendant Schlitt withheld exculpatory evidence from the District Attorney.
46. Defendant Schlitt was directly and actively involved in the initiation of criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
47. Defendant Schlitt lacked probable cause to initiate criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
48. Defendant Schlitt acted with malice in initiating criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
49. Defendant Schlitt directly and actively involved in the continuation of criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
50. Defendant Schlitt lacked probable cause to continue criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
51. Defendant Schlitt misrepresented and falsified evidence throughout all phases of the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff.
52. Notwithstanding the perjurious and fraudulent conduct of Defendant Schlitt the criminal proceedings were terminated in Plaintiff's favor when he acceded to an adjournment in contemplation.
53. By so doing, the individual Defendants, individually and collectively, subjected Plaintiff to fabrication of evidence, denial of fair trial, and denial of due process, and thereby violated, conspired to violate, and aided and abetted in the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
54. By reason thereof, the individual Defendant Schlitt have violated 42 U.S.C. §1983 and caused Plaintiff to suffer emotional and physical injuries, mental anguish, incarceration and the deprivation of liberty, and the loss of his constitutional rights.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF FOR MALICIOUS PROSECUTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

55. Plaintiff DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
56. Defendants fabricated knowingly false material evidence and forwarded said evidence to prosecutors at the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
57. As a result, Plaintiff suffered deprivation of his liberty, as he was required to make numerous court appearances to contest the false accusations against him.
58. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted, he was put in fear for his safety, and he was detained and falsely arrested, detained, and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
FOR MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

59. Plaintiff, repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and at length.
60. Defendants arrested, searched, and incarcerated plaintiff DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER, in the absence of any evidence of criminal wrongdoing, notwithstanding their knowledge that said search, arrest and incarceration would jeopardize Plaintiff's liberty, well-being, safety, and violate his constitutional rights.
61. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials, with all the actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto.

62. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers and officials pursuant to the customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures, and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.
63. Those customs, policies, patterns, and practices include, but are not limited to:
  - i. requiring officers to make a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
  - ii. requiring precincts to record a predetermined number of arrests and/or issue a predetermined number of summonses within a predetermined time frame;
  - iii. failing to take any measures to correct unconstitutional behavior when brought to the attention of supervisors and/or policy makers;
  - iv. failing to properly train police officers in the requirements of the United States Constitution.
64. The aforesaid customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department directly cause, inter alia, the following unconstitutional practices:
  - i. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to inflate the officer's arrest statistics;
  - ii. arresting individuals regardless of probable cause in order to positively affect precinct-wide statistics;
  - iii. falsifying evidence and testimony to support those arrests;
  - iv. falsifying evidence and testimony to cover up police misconduct.
65. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department constitute a deliberate indifference to the safety, well-being and constitutional rights of Plaintiff, DAYVAUGHN ALEXANDER.

66. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.
67. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as alleged herein.
68. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of THE CITY OF NEW YORK and the New York City Police Department, Plaintiff was placed under arrest unlawfully.
69. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, were directly and actively involved in violating the constitutional rights of Plaintiff.
70. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate police officers, and were directly responsible for the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.
71. All of the foregoing acts by defendants deprived Plaintiff of federally protected constitutional rights, particularly their Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights to be free from unreasonable search and seizure.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants on each of the foregoing causes of action as follows:

- i. an order awarding compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- ii. an order awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- iii. reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. §1988; and
- iv. directing such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper, together with attorneys' fees, interest, costs and disbursements of this action.
